Police Court Docket Is About Cleared of "Blind Tiger" Cases.

OFFENDERS BECOME WARY

Handsome Increase Made by State Banks During Past Year.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
RALEIGH, N. C., July 26.—Police Justice Stronach and Chief of Police Stell are congratulating themselves on an evidently effective crusade they made the past week on blind tigers. It is a fact that this is the first Monday in a great while that there has not been a whole bunch of drunks on the docket for the Police Court. The police declare that not a single case of drunkenness was seen Salurday night or Sunday in the whole city. There are to be trials of six "ligers" Tuesday morning. It was the arrest of these at different times during the past week that seems to have put an end, at least for the present, to "blind tiger" traffic.

That State, private and savings banks of North Carolina have an aggregate of $50,389520.57, a gain of $5,023,129 over the reported total resources one year ago, is the showing made by the report of the Corporation Commission, based on reports from these banks at the close of business June 23. There are 315 of the three classes of banks subject to the supervision of the Corporation Commission, as compared with 294 banks one year ago. This summary does not include, of course, the national banking interests of the State. Some notable features of the State. Some notable features of the sasets of these State banks are $35,003,-342 in loans and discounts, $335,207 in overdafts, $1,851 in United States bonds, $166,772 in North Carolina State bonds, and $1,022,900 in all other stocks, bonds and mortgages. Banking houses are valued at $1,023,208. The aggregate of the several classes of deposits, including savings, certificate, demand, subject to check and others, is $37,-068,790.

Ronnoke World Sends Scout Car to Martinsville.

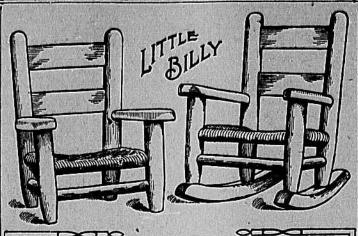

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

MARTINSVILLE, VA. July 26—The announcement in yesterday morning's papers that the officials of the New York-Atlanta automobile highway had decided on a route through Ronnoke and Winston-Salem or Greensboro, N. C. for the good roads and reliability run next October, between New York and Atlanta, was received with much interest here, as this route will almost certainly bring the automobilists through Henry county and Martinsville.

most certainly bring the automobilists through Henry county and Martinsville.

Close on the heels of this announcement the good roads car of the Roanoke Evening World, in charge of W. L. Shafer, of Roanoke, and having on board J. H. Marsteller and W. B. Bates, of Roanoke, and B. A. Davis, of Roanoke, and B. A. Davis, of Roanoke in search of a practical route for the coming contest between Roanoke and Martinsville. The greater portion of this route is in Franklin county, which has not been famous for its good roads. Notwithstandling this fact the Roanoke party met with no accidents and no insurmountable obstacles. The run from Rocky Mount here was made in good time, although the automobilists took the somewhat ligzag course by Sydnoraville and Snow Creek, which carries them through a very hilly section of country.

The roads in Henry county are in Completely Destroyed by Fire.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

WAYNESBORO, VA., July 26.—The wareroom, with the office of J. W. Ellison, were completely destroyed by fire yesterday afternoon. The large structure was completely filled with hay, feed and wirming implements. Everything was a complete loss, partially covered by insurence. The work of the fire company saved all of the adjoining buildings. adjoining buildings.

Probably Fatal Row.

CHATHAM, VA., July 26.—Monroe Rowland was shot and probably fatally hurt by E. D. Pugh at Sycamore Sunday in a dispute over whiskey. Pugh is in jail here and is very reticent.
